

Jill is the Senior Vice President of The Docking Group, a Wichita-based Baird financial services firm. Jill has over 28 years of industry experience after beginning her career with A.G. Edwards. She holds a bachelor's degree in history and an MBA from the University of Kansas.

Jill is very active in her community. She founded and serves as President of the Financial Fitness Foundation, along with being one of the co-chairs of the University of Kansas' capital campaign. Jill is also a member on the University's endowment and medical boards.

In her free time, Jill enjoys spending time and travelling with family, especially her granddaughters Charlotte, Jane, and Meredith. She also enjoys reading, studying piano and hiking.